Make plans now to attend the greatest SSC Homecoming ever held at the college.

Bob Fitzgerald, President of the Alumni Association, announces that plans are now being formulated for the weekend of November 2.

Growth of the college and more events make it possible for a two-day program.

Minimester Held 1st Time

The College offered a Minimester from May 14th to June 1st, in many academic areas.

The Minimester, gave students an opportunity to pursue non-traditional areas of study, as well as the more conventional areas.

Art, Math, Speech, Business Ad, Geography, Health and Phys. Ed, History, Language, Psych., Bio. and Soc. were the subjects offered.

Smokers' Clinic Held

Results are still coming in to lend credence to the College's "Smoker's Withdrawal Clinic that was held in April.

Participating in this first clinic spearheaded by Dr. Robert McBrien, Director of Counseling Services, SSC, and Wayne Howard, Program Consultant of the Lower Shore Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Advisory Council, were students and faculty at the College and Salisbury area residents.

The clinic was held for 5 nights. A series of follow-ups have continued to show success, one professor at the college has quit smoking after 38 years.

The program included films, presentations, discussions, and evaluation of each participants breathing before and after smoking. Participants were thus able to see for the first time how their breathing capacity was decreased by smoking.

Anyone in the Salisbury area interested in the next clinic should call Dr. McBrien at the College.

There's Still Time to Help! Send in Your Gift Now!

The response continues to be excellent on the Carillon Fund, it was announced at News Press time by Bob Fitzgerald, President of the Alumni Association.

Mr. Fitzgerald reminds all alumni that there is still time to help with the Alumni fund-raising project. If everyone sends in $5.00 the Carillon will be fully funded, he noted.

Don't put off joining in this effort! Send in your contribution today. Make checks payable to Salisbury State Alumni Association.

The Carillon was installed in October at the College on a demonstration basis and has received such favorable comment from both students and community members that the bells are here to stay.

The unit is a Schulmerich Coronation Carillon and plays the full Westminster sequence on the hour. The 25 English type melody bells and 25 chime tones also play pop and classical music selections at 12 noon and 5 P.M.

Your donation to the Carillon Fund is greatly appreciated. Only through participation by alumni such as yourself can a successful Alumni Association exist.

This purchase of the carillon is undoubtedly the largest project ever undertaken by the Association and much cooperation is needed to make it a success.

Many of the alumni cannot be contacted because of outdated addresses in our mailing list. If you have talked with an alumnus of Salisbury State who thinks he has been forgotten, please send us his current address and we will contact him immediately.

Incomplete New Dorm Causes Shortage of Beds; Some Frosh to Start at Frostburg

Salisbury State College has announced a temporary, unique coordination of admission procedures with Frostburg State College that may move a number of Salisbury State incoming freshmen and transfer students from Salisbury to Frostburg.

Dr. Norman C. Crawford, Jr., President of Salisbury State College, said that two opposite developments have resulted in the coordination effort between the two colleges. Delays in construction of a new 221-bed dormitory at Salisbury and the loss of dorm space in Holloway Hall due to renovation, have created a serious shortage of beds on the SSC campus.

As a result of this development and a contrary situation at Frostburg State, where a number of on-campus residence spaces are available, the Board of Trustees of Maryland State College, suggested a pooling of student resources. "This is a fine example of cooperation on the part of both Colleges in the proper utilization of manpower and facilities," the Salisbury President said.

He continued, "We are heartened by the healthy condition of a growing Salisbury State College and its increasing popularity in the state and region."

"In the three-year period from September 1969 to September 1972, our total enrollment has increased from 1181 to 2370, an average increase of 400 persons per year. While most other colleges are reporting decreases in the number of applications received, interest in our College continues to grow impressively," Dr. Crawford said.

He noted that the College has contacted the incoming freshmen and transfer students, who cannot be housed, notifying each one that, had the construction been on schedule, there would have been no problem.

The students were advised that should they opt to attend Frostburg, their admission to Salisbury would be accepted as bonafide at Frostburg. They were also advised that they could return to Salisbury State at a later date, with all academic work transferable with no loss of credit.

Mrs. Margaret Hopkins, Director of Admissions, said that Salisbury State will continue to accept applications from commuting students and their acceptance will not be affected in any way by the housing problem.

For the first time in Salisbury State College's history, more men have applied for admission than women. Approximately 1200 applications were received this year, which is about identical with a year ago.

According to latest figures, a total of 706 men have applied while 518 women have made application to the college.

Largest Graduating Class in History Receives Diplomas at Civic Center

The Civic Center was packed on May 13, when the largest Graduating Class of the College received Degrees.

An estimated crowd of 2,500 people watched from the bleachers on both sides of the Civic Center, as well as from the seats and risers on the floor.

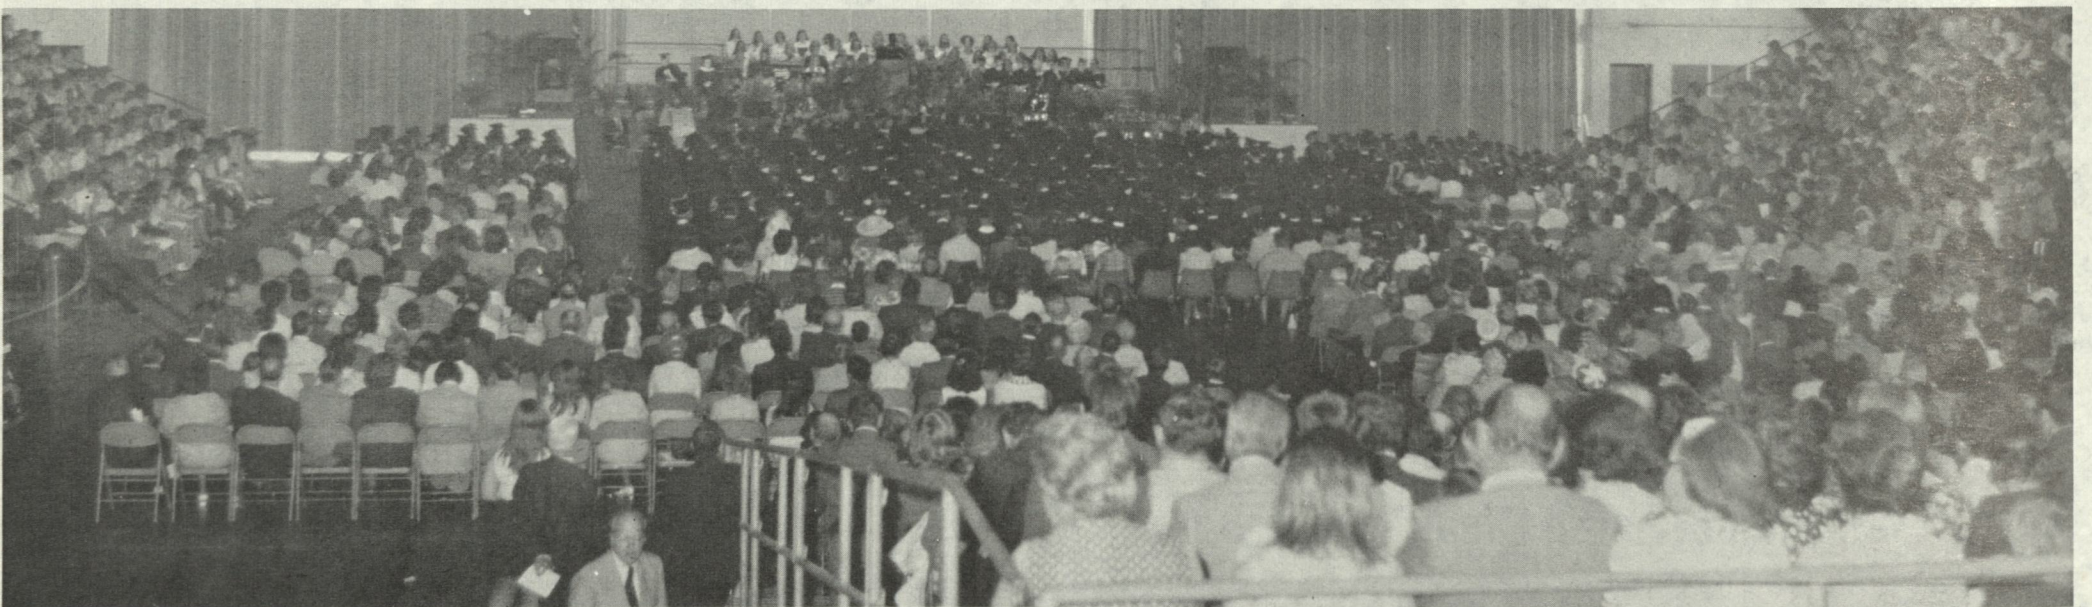

More than 375 degrees were conferred including the Master of Education Degree and for the first time in the history of the College, the Master of Arts Degree.

After the traditional processional entrance, Dr. Norman C. Crawford, Jr. welcomed everyone to the ceremony and introduced the guest speaker, Dr. O. C. Jonah, Senior Officer, Office of the Under Secretary General for Special Political Affairs, United Nations.

In Dr. Jonah's speech, "To Build A Newer World," the graduates were challenged not to view graduation as the Culminating Goal, but instead as part of a commitment to make the world a better place to live.

Degrees were conferred and presented by Dr. H. Gray Reeves of Salisbury, a member of the board of trustees for the Maryland State Colleges and Dr. Crawford. Eighteen (18) graduated with honors. Donna Andrew of Federalsburg, Diane Harris of White Hall, and Susan Waller and Susan Wilkins of Salisbury received the top honors of Magna cum laude.

First College Meet at SSC Draws 16 Colleges From 4 States

Some of the best intercollegiate trackmen in a four state area gathered at SSC's campus on Saturday, April 28th for the first annual Del-Mar-Va Invitational Relays.

Lloyd Sigler, the College's Track Coach, coordinated the ambitious venture, which had 16 colleges participating.

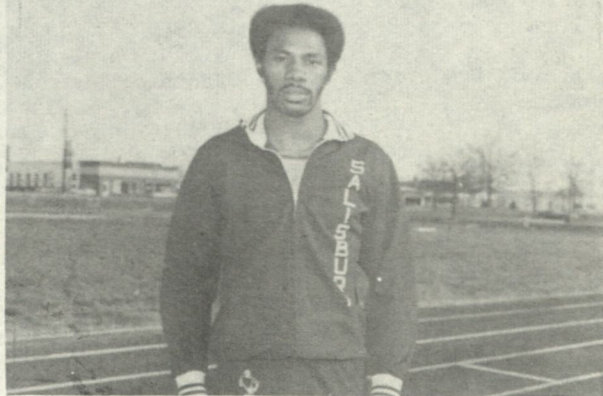

Four unusual events also took place in this meet along with the regular track and field competition. They were the Shuttle Relay with four-man teams of hurdlers running the 120 yard high hurdles on a relay basis, won by UMES: the Pentathlon with each competitor participating in five events won by All-American, Lloyd Sigler, Coach at SSC and the Devil Takes The Hindmost event. In this event all runners run three (3) laps and at the end of the third lap, and each successive lap, the runner in last place drops out until only one runner remains. Delaware State won this event as Mike Wilson ran 19 laps or 4 1/4 miles in 23:51 flat. The last event that might be termed unusual at a college meet was the Sub-Master's Mile. This event, in which only men over 30 may participate, was won by Olympian Oscar Moore, coach at Glassboro State. Coach Moore ran the mile in 4:21.3, a new track record at the college. Finishing 3rd in this event was Bob McBrien, Director of Counseling Services at SSC.

UMES and Delaware State finished tops in a dozen of the 18 events held. Salisbury managed a lone success in the regular events with a win in the 220 yd dash by Jeff Polk.

Polk in Nat'l Spotlight For Track Efforts

Jeff Polk, Salisbury State's sensational freshman sprinter, captured sixth place in the finals of the 220-yard dash at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Track and Field Championships at Arkadelphia, Ark., May 25.

Polk, who went undefeated in competition during the SSC outdoor season, is the first Sea Gull competitor in history to place in national competition. Jeff had a 0.21.4 in the finals to nail down sixth place and he received a plaque from the N.A.I.A. Runners topping Jeff were from South Carolina, Tennessee, California and Ohio.

Round Ball Team Sets New Records in Season

The Sea Gulls established six all-time basketball records this year according to the final statistics released from the College Athletic Department.

The 1972-73 team, coached by Ward Lambert, compiled an 11-15 record and finished the season in 2nd place in the Delaware Valley Conference . . . highest finish for the College in its history.

Records set included: Team Season Records, Most Rebounds Per Game, 54.1, Most Assists Per Game, 23.6, Team Single Game Records, Most Rebounds (vs. York) 85 (ties record), Best Field Goal Pct. (vs. Bowie) .591, and Individual Record, Most Consecutive Free Throws 19 - Tom Torrillo.

The Sea Gulls lost two thru graduation. Gilbert Jenkins, captain for 2 years and leading scorer this year, and Jack Stewart, capable 6th man on the team.

Lambert commented that "Next year, the addition of Mt. St. Marys, Baltimore University, and UMBC will make an even tougher schedule, but a veteran squad returning and a couple of outstanding freshman projects should help the prospects.

Salisbury Group Tours England in May

SSC sponsored a 2 week tour of London. A group of 30, flew from Dulles Airport to London May 14 and returned May 28th.

Various departments offered one credit courses in connection with the tour, which was open to the college community and residents of the Salisbury area.
